For over three decades, Diane has provided professional, personalized service as a make-up artist and hair-stylist to the Milwaukee-area production community. For the past 17 years she has also worked as a professional portrait photographer primarily serving actors and models. She continues to use her home based studio to test new products and techniques to best serve the high demands of High Definition Media.

Through Yokes & Associates, Diane continues to offer her own personalized services as a make-up artist and hair stylist while networking with other skilled associates.

Upon request, she will also provide wardrobe consulting along with a wardrobe styling kit on set.

Diane believes strongly in continuing education and continues to update her kit with products and techniques tailored to meet the application demands of Hi-Definition digital media and live broadcasts.

To follow is a comprehensive listing of the many companies and persons Diane has worked with personally over the past three decades.

The highlighted areas represent the most recent 5 years. 2011 to Current
